RAHMADAN HADIYA: COMMUNITY PANTRY FOR SOLO PARENTS

According to research, a person can become a single or sole parent for many different reasons. You may have chosen to start a family on your own, you may be separated or divorced, or the other parent may have died. As a sole parent, you may worry about whether you can create the happy, healthy family environment your child needs. The good news is: you absolutely can.

Thus, in order to address the socio-economic needs of the solo parents in their celebration of Ramadan amidst of pandemic the Provincial Gender and Development of Maguindanao through its Focal Person initiated the Program Community Pantry (Hadiyang Handog ng Agila) the 100 Solo Parents of the Municipality of Maguindanao Del sur. The objectives of the said program were to give assistance and to give free Hadiya to the solo parents of the selected Municipalities.
